

Student Volunteers Needed for the Florida Association for Marriage and Family Therapy (FAMFT) 2011 State Conference in Deerfield Beach, Florida

The FAMFT State Conference is being held in Deerfield, May 12 thru 14, 2011 at the Hilton Hotel, Deerfield Beach, Florida. The theme of the conference is “Growing Your Practice in 2011.”

Why Volunteer?

- Volunteering is the perfect way to feel connected to our profession. The simple act of offering your skills and enthusiasm will positively impact the lives of others, as well as your own.
- Volunteering is an invaluable experience and engaging in service in our profession creates a valuable dimension to the communities we will serve as aspiring Marriage and Family Therapist.
- Organizations like ours can't function without the energy and input of student volunteers.

Rewards

- Get your conference fee waived.
- Lunch is included.
- Hear recognized known keynote speakers and attend informative workshops.
- Network with Marriage and Family Therapy professionals from across State of Florida as well as on a local Chapter level.
- Network with other students.

FAMFT is seeking assistance from energetic STUDENT VOLUNTEERS to help with the preparation of the conference, onsite conference registration, monitor sessions, as well as other duties at the conference.

If you are a student enrolled in a Marriage and Family Therapy Program or an AAMFT Student member, you are eligible to volunteer. Conference information can be accessed at www.famft.org or you may contact the Miami-Dade Chapter at miamidadechapter@hotmail.com or call us at 786.222.7671.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Alicea
